MANHOOD
IN THE
YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION

The vegetative powers of life are strong but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack lustre eye and emaciated form and the impossibility of application to mental effort show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country This is one of the worst movements Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever changing scenes of the city the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves

If the patient be a female the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman is looked for in vain The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

the Back Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness with Horror of Society Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves no repose of manner no earnestness no speculation but a hurried transition from one question to another

THESE SYMPTOMS, IF ALLOWED TO GO ON—WHICH THIS MEDICINE INVARIABLY REMOVES—SOON FOLLOW LOSS OF POWER FATUITY AND EPILEPTIC FITS, IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE

During the Superintendence of Dr Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum this same result occurred to two patients Reason had for a time them and left both died of epilepsy They were of both sexes and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute, neither mirth nor grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate

"With woful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the

GENERAL AMNESTY FOR THE MASSES AND SPECIAL PUNISHMENT FOR PERJURED TRAITORS.—Senator Buckingham in his speech on the Amnesty question, delivered in the Senate of the United States, takes the broad ground that the rebellion was treason, and that for the commission of this crime the leaders, in numbers sufficient to vindicate the majesty and authority of law, should have been punished with death. We entirely agree with him in this view of the question. The nation conquered the rebellion as a military power, but it has not to this day executed the law in regard to treason against a solitary rebel The law is in the statute book, but it has been suffered to remain there as a dead letter by a mistaken clemency The only thing that approaches the idea of judicial condemnation is the clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, which makes perjured traitors ineligible to office, unless Congress, by a two thirds majority in both Houses, shall remove this disability This is the penalty in the judicial sense, but simply an exclusion from a political privilege, for one of the most stupendous crimes of history Shall this exclusion be now entirely removed by universal amnesty, or shall the amnesty be general while leaving the Fourteenth Amendment still operative against such men as Jefferson Davis, John C Breckinridge, Robert Toombs and the like? These men belong to a class, not very numerous, that ought to be left till the day of their death just where the Fourteenth Amendment places them. Not being punished judicially, as they should have been let them carry this mark of the nation's abhorrence to the end of life. It cost the nation some five millions of dollars and a half million of lives to suppress the rebellion, of which they were the chief plotters in the outset and the active planners in the progress To them no amnesty should be extended

Their appearance in the halls of legislation or on the bench of justice, or in the army and navy, or in the civil service of the country, would be an insult to the interests of the living Their number is not so great that society cannot get along without their official services —[New York Independent

MR. EDMUNDS ON THE CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.—In debate in the United States House of Representatives, recently, Mr Edmunds said he thought it very remarkable in the wisdom of the country, supposed to be concentrated in Congress, having last year deliberately passed a law, authorizing the President to make this experiment in civil service reform, to threaten to abandon the effort and repeal the law just as soon as an attempt was made to put it into practical operation He fully agreed with those who denounced this civil service reform as a humbug and encroachment upon the rights of the people, for his own rights had been most unwarrantably infringed on. In the good old times, when he went to the department and asked to have Smith or Jones appointed to office because he was a friend of his, or because he had worked hard to make him a Senator, or some other equally good reason, the matter was generally arranged satisfactorily without any impertinent questions as to the fitness of the applicant for the place, but now, when he approached the head of the department on the same errand he was told that his recommendation was no longer sufficient to secure an appointment, that the President had taken the matter out of the hands of the members of Congress, and that applicants were now required to undergo an examination as a test of their fitness for the places they sought, as if there could be any better proof of a man's fitness for any office than that he had helped to elect a Senator — [Laughter] In this way he (Edmunds) was stripped of the fictitious importance he formerly enjoyed, brought down to the common level, and compelled to stand upon his own merits alone. Of course he felt this to be a gross outrage [Laughter.] He spoke only for himself He was only stating his own grievances, but he knew that his fellow Senators would sympathize with him. [Laughter] It was a painful fact, however, that in this country there were a great many persons who thought differently—people who were neither candidates for office nor followers of candidates, people who did not appreciate the merits and claims of the managers of primaries and other political bodies, and who thought that postmasters ought to know how to write, keep accounts and understand arithmetic—Nobody could see more clearly than he did the folly of all this, but as these unreasonable people were unfortunately in a great majority and as it was their business the officers of the Government were paid to do, and their money that was to be collected and spent, he feared that they would have their way [Laughter]

HOW IT FEELS TO BE HANGED.—A Frenchman writing to the Gaulois gives an account of his sensations while hanging himself, which may be of benefit to persons of a suicidal turn of mind, and who would like to know "what the thing is like" As if preparing to hang up his coat, he drove a nail into the wall, and therefrom suspended himself by a looped cord, which he fastened about his neck, and then slowly kicked away his chair From the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, he felt a "general mixing up of the fluids of the body" This was succeeded by a flashing, dancing light before the eyes, and then concentrated at a single focus, and thence rippled into space in concentric circles His head seemed compressed in an iron ring, needles without number seemed to dart from the ends of his fingers and toes, then there was a terrible snapping at the nape of his neck, and a serpent seemed to wriggle down his spine. His last sensation was one of pain at the throat and shoulder blades. He had expected to wake up and find himself dead, but kind—or unkind friends cut him down

The Journal says the shipment of boots and shoes from Lewiston and Auburn last week were 1847 cases, to 1260 cases for the preceding week. The shipments since the first week in February, have been 1748 cases, an average of nearly 1500 per week. The receipts of leather for the past week were 61,000 pounds, to 73,500 pounds for the previous week.

ANALYSIS OF CORN COBS.

Considerable discussion has recently arisen in agricultural journals and at farmers' meetings upon the nutritive value of corn-cobs when ground and fed to animals It is a very common practice among farmers to grind the whole ears of corn, and feed the product to horses This plan we have adopted to a considerable extent at our own farm, but we have had some misgivings as to the utility or advisability of the practice With the view of ascertaining as nearly as practicable the exact nutritive value of the cobs, we selected a nice ear of Lakeside corn from a bundle hanging in our counting-room, and removing the kernels, subjected the cob to analysis. It gave of—

Water	7 48
Crude fibre	30 95
Ash	1 16
Carbohydrates fat and albuminoids	60 41
	100 00

The amount of fat was not accurately determined but it proved to be more than one per cent. The amount of water is probably smaller than it would have been had the corn been taken directly from the grain house, instead of the ware room in which it had been hanging for some weeks.

The results of the analysis prove that there is in corn cobs a considerable amount of fat producing and flesh-forming constituents. In the sixty per cent. of carbohydrates, albuminoids, fat, &c, are found the elements which have nutritive value, and in order that we may obtain some idea of its comparative worth, let us contrast it with the dry straw of some grains

Wheat straw contains about 30 per cent of carbohydrates, 2 per cent. of albuminoids, and 1½ per cent. of fat, oat straw, 38 per cent of the first named substances, 2½ of the second, and 2 of the third, rye straw, 27 of the first, ½ of the second, and 1 3 10 of the third

It is shown that cobs have a higher value than wheat or rye straw, and they equal in nutritive constituents the best quality of oat straw These results indicate the utility of feeding them to our animals, provided there are no objections of a strictly physical nature or objections arising from bulk and difficulty of reducing the cob to a sufficiently fine powder It is not probable that cob meal can be perfectly digested unless comminution is carried to an extreme point, and therefore the finer the cobs are ground, the higher the value, and the less the liability of gastric disturbance It is certain we do not give sufficient attention to the matter of grinding any of the grains fed to our animals They should be ground as fine as possible, in order that they may be easy of digestion, and in order that the nutritive substances may be fully utilized There is a positive loss in feeding out coarsely ground grain of any kind, and in grinding the cob with the corn, give special attention to the work of comminution The corn in the ear should be thoroughly dry before it is carried to mill, and there will be less difficulty in reducing it to a fine powder.—Boston Journal of Chemistry

THE SMUGGLING ON THE BORDER.—The Boston Journal has the following account of the extensive smuggling alleged to have been been discovered recently by the U S Revenue officers

"The new Smuggling Scheme, which is mentioned in our telegraphic columns yesterday, appears to have been of considerable magnitude It is said that during the year the leading importers have been very much surprised at the low prices of silks, laces, velvets, gloves, etc, and have in vain endeavored to discover whence goods were obtained at such ruinous rates It has now been discovered that a wealthy firm in the British Provinces has been carrying on the operations with very great success The mode of operation merits an explanation It is in the highest degree artful, and is spoken of as follows "

'The goods bought in Europe are shipped to Halifax, N S, John, N. B, or Montreal The light Canadian duties are paid and the goods released from bond The merchandise is then divided into small lots and taken to St Stephen, N B, in trunks St. Stephen is directly opposite Calais, Me., and separated from it by the St. Croix river. Two bridges afford communication between the towns—Between Calais and Bangor is a wide strip of barren country, across which a stage conveys passengers and baggage for about forty miles United States Customs officers are stationed upon the route, and occasionally overhaul the stage and examine the baggage As the chances of getting away with smuggled goods out of Calais are small, the U S Customs authorities do not examine baggage coming across the bridges from St Stephen into Calais, but, should the parties owning it continue their trip into the United States by stage via Bangor, or by steamer via Portland, the baggage is examined, and, if no dutiable goods are found, a pass is pasted up on the trunk, and the Customs officers at Portland or Bangor do not again examine it.—The band of smugglers, it is said, taking advantage of this system, bring a trunk filled with ordinary baggage into Calais, and having had it examined and the pass pasted upon it, substitute another trunk, filled with costly dutiable goods, and having transferred the pass, continue the journey into the States without fear of detection. A different person is employed each time, so as not to awaken suspicion on the part of the examining officers'

It seems as soon as the goods are lodged in the United States they are or were—since these ambitious operations will doubtless be stopped—sent to the different cities, and sold very much below the ruling prices. The New York Tribune says "that large quantities have been sold in Boston, Springfield, Hartford, New Haven and Chicago New York it appears, has been left out on account of the danger arising from the presence of large numbers of customs detectives. It is estimated that several hundred thousand dollars worth of goods have been brought in through this channel during the last year These goods are nearly all bought in Europe, by different men in business in Montreal, St. John and Halifax, and the smugglers have thus covered their tracks in an adroit manner—Many Dominion dealers might be mentioned as connected with the business Richard Story, well known in Gloucester and Boston, is alleged to be at the head of this smuggling scheme, and as he has been in the Provinces rather extensively for the past year, and sometimes, it is further alleged, under assumed names, the theory seems plausible. An enormous profit must have been realized by the men engaged in this gigantic smuggling scheme, even at the low prices at which they have sold many of their wares"

A zealous tax collector in a Michigan town forcibly robbed a delinquent citizen on the street recently, and took his gold watch as security for the payment of the tax. Neither would he give up the captured property until informed by counsel that the proceeding was unlawful, when he returned it with an apology

The official report of the new Erie Directors states that the earnings of the company from November, 1871, to date were $21,000,000, against $17,000,000 the previous year Rumor says the receipts were $1,000,000 above the expenses.

SHUTTING THE DOOR ON THE PARSON.—Ten or fifteen years ago a public dinner was given to the members of the Legislature at Providence, and a Narragansett preacher, called the 'Regular Pacer,' because in his prayers he had a habit of standing behind a chair, stepping backward and hitching it after him, was called on to ask a blessing He stood up in his usual style and began a lengthy prayer There was an open door behind him, and he soon unwittingly backed into an adjoining room, taking his chair along, when some one softly closed the door and the hungry guests proceeded to dine while the petition was finished at leisure by the abstracted minister —[Washington Star

MONDAY, MARCH 18 1872

SENATOR SUMNER'S POSITION

The Boston Advertiser's Washington correspondent sent the following telegram to that paper on Friday evening:

It is reported to-day in political circles and on good authority that Senator Sumner intends to attend the Cincinnati Convention on the first of May next and that he has expressed his intention of accepting the offer of the presidency of that body. The Senator remarked in conversation with his colleague, Mr Wilson, to-day that there was no reconciliation or harmony possible between himself and President Grant, and that he should take an early opportunity to declare his open and entire independence. He intimated that he should go further and "carry the war into Africa", that he should attack the President and his administration with all the vigor and effect at his command. When asked for the reason of this proposed action the Senator stated that he believed the interest and wishes of his Republican constituents demanded and justified it, and named three gentlemen well known in the inner political circles of Massachusetts as his authority for this belief. Mr Sumner informed Mr Wilson that their political paths must soon openly diverge but that no want of confidence or personal esteem on his part could arise.

This announcement naturally produced quite a sensation in Massachusetts, as although Mr Sumner's hostility to the President has been well understood, few of his constituents believed that he would permit his personal prejudices to lead him into a position directly antagonizing the will of the Republican party. The response of Republican Massachusetts to this reported purpose of her senior Senator has been promptly indicated by the press, and the expressions of incredulity and regret are [illegible] than the assurance to Mr Sumner that in taking any such departure he must leave the great mass of his friends and hitherto supporters in his own State behind. The Evening Traveller of Saturday notes the report and makes it the subject of the following earnest words:

There are tens of thousands of admirers among the Republican constituents of Senator Sumner who will read the quoted paragraph with regret, and believe it cannot be true unless his feelings have got the control of his reason, and affect his judgment. He may go to the convention at Cincinnati and take with him a few "sore-headed" [illegible], but in this movement he will have no sympathy from the great body of the Republicans of the Commonwealth. They will regret the personal quarrel which is the cause of his departure, but they love the party and its principles better even than [illegible] once made [illegible] men"—they will still rally around the Republican standard and bear it to victory, though they may weep in the hour of triumph at the defections in their ranks. But they will soon cease to mourn for "broken idols," the men who to-day place themselves in alliance with the Democracy, and become the "forlorn hope" of a movement to restore them to power. [illegible] will not long remain the [illegible] that party which gave [illegible] to the nation freedom to the slave, [illegible] rights to the [illegible] and prosperity to the country. Mr Sumner is loved for the work he has done, but he will lose that love when he [illegible] that work.

The Advertiser devotes a leading article [illegible] the report in the same issue containing the dispatch, and while also expressing [illegible] regret it is equally frank and [illegible] assuring the Senator that neither his constituents at home nor any considerable [illegible] the people elsewhere will [illegible] him in a movement so hostile to the principles and success of the [illegible] party which [illegible] honored and trusted him [illegible] give aid and comfort [illegible] has been the bitterest foe of every [illegible] measures of justice [illegible] championship [illegible] comments upon [illegible]

The Cincinnati Convention. There is not an intelligent Democrat from Maine to [illegible] who is not at this moment looking to it for an alliance, and expecting to co-operate with it for the solitary purpose of recovering power and stopping the growth of principles which Mr Sumner and Mr Greeley have in their way helped to graft upon the nation. — And while the discreet dissenters are [illegible] ing Democrats not to [illegible] too [illegible] and spoil the game, the Democratic organs are urging their constituents to prepare their minds for co-operation with this [illegible] as the only way of [illegible] "The most hopelessly pig-headed Bourbon in "the party" says [illegible] these organs, "must now recognize the fact that a Democratic 'candidate for President could not carry more "than one third of the electoral vote. It follows that the hope of rescuing the country 'from imperialism and corruption depends "solely on the union of all the elements of 'opposition.' To secure this union and achieve the victory every Democrat who is not insane looks to this Convention to point out the way." It was only yesterday, simultaneously with the dispatch explaining Mr Sumner's position, that, by a striking coincidence, the Democratic organ in Washington [illegible] invited co-operation with this [illegible] with the assurance that "the extreme Southern wing of the Democracy was ready to 'agree to a coalition."

Meanwhile the Republican National Convention is receiving the endorsement of State after State, [illegible] the people expressing their preferences with unanimity never surpassed, but ready to accept the result whatever it may be—provided [illegible] the line of the principles already on trial and gives assurance that until they are securely established there must be no new departure.

THREE OF HORACE GREELEY'S LETTERS. Some of the papers are publishing samples of Mr Greeley's recent political correspondence and we copy three of them as given in an exchange. One is addressed to a Massachusetts man and is as follows:—

NEW YORK, Feb [illegible]

Dear Sir —I am not for Grant if there is any help for it, as I trust there may be. Send all you can to Cincinnati Convention and come yourself. New York will be largely represented there.

Yours, HORACE GREELEY

J N Boyd, Esq, Chillicothe M[illegible]

Another written a week later to a Virginian, evinces a little anxiety on the tariff question, and is given thus:

"NEW YORK, March 7th 1[illegible]

My Dear Sir —I am doing my best in the Conservative movement, and expect to do so to the end. I take no care as to candidates but if there should be an attempt to make free trade a plank of the platform I must be counted out.

Yours, HORACE GREELEY

A third and the briefest of them all was written prior to the others but is more expressive than either. A Kansas editor wrote him to ask if he had ever said that he would not support Grant if Grant were nominated; there came the following answer:—

TRIBUNE OFFICE,
NEW YORK, Feb 22 18[illegible]

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION. The Manchester (N H) Daily Mirror gives returns from all but two towns in the State showing a total vote of 78,056 of which Mr Straw has [illegible] Mr Weston 36,361 Mr Cooper [illegible] Mr Blackmer 441. Total opposition, [illegible] Mr Straw's majority 1348.— After deducting the opposition majority of last year in two towns not reported (188) Mr Straw's majority will be 1160. A dozen scattering votes may appear in the returns not now reported. The Council is composed of four Republicans and one opposition—the Senate of eight Republicans to four opposition, while of the 365 members of the House 214 are Republicans, 144 Democrats and 7 labor reform and temperance, making sixty-three Republican majority.

The Concord correspondent of the Boston Advertiser gives the following account of the new Legislature:—

The complexion of the House of Representatives elect of course is greatly changed from that of the present body. In Rockingham county Hackett of Portsmouth and Gilman of Exeter are relieved, and Batten of Kingston is returned. General Marston and Col C. H. Bell of Exeter, elected, are both experienced legislators, and will each be prominent in the participation of the deliberations of the new House. Strafford county sees Herring of Farmington and Knapp of Somersworth. Concord returns Judge Fowler and George A. Pillsbury, President of the First National Bank. Dr J. H Gallenger and Superintendent Todd and Mr. Coggswell of the Monitor are among the new members from that city. Judge Nesmith of Franklin also re-appears. The labor reform member from Pittsfield, who bored the House last summer, is succeeded by a Democratic member which is a great improvement. Mr J O. Adams of the Mirror seems not to be among the Manchester delegation this year, and Mr G A. Ramsdell of Nashua also retires, as does General Wilson of Keene, from which town comes Dr T E. Hatch, and will be a valuable member. Mr Wadleigh of Milford who was the prominent leader on the Republican side last summer, is re-elected, and should he desire it, probably would be chosen Speaker. The strong men of the Democracy seem to come from Grafton county, which sends Harry Bingham and also Charles A. Sinclair son of the Democratic chairman. Francis R Chase of Northfield, like Bell of Exeter an ex Speaker, again returns. Putnam of Warren will be present to second the motions of Mr Bingham, but the leader of last year will be obliged to be contented with the laurels then worn as the Democracy this year can only maintain the position of a healthy minority.

LETTER FROM BELFAST

BELFAST, Me, March 16, 1872

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

Yesterday was one of the most uncomfortable days of the season. In the forenoon a few inches of snow fell, and in the afternoon the wind rose to almost the hurricane figure and the air was filled with the flying feathery particles. This morning the mercury lacks only 5° of being down to zero. The roads outside are drifted badly and business is dull. The indications are certainly in favor of the traditional "six weeks sledding in March."

The produce market is quiet. Potatoes are at 40 cents per bushel, but they come in slowly. There is not a great stock of them on the farmers' hands so many having been fed out to stock during the winter. Morrow, the potato buyer from your city, has pitched his tent here and has commenced operating. Hay [illegible] at from $30 to $32 per ton.

The matters of most interest to our citizens just now are our local educational interests. Our schools closed a few days ago with public examinations, which were largely attended and gave entire satisfaction. We have a graded system in the city district, as follows: Two Primaries, an Intermediate, a Grammar, a Select, and a High school. At the regular annual district meeting last week it was voted to abolish the Select grade and merge it in the High and Grammar schools. The number of pupils at the High school has been comparatively small.

At the close of the term the pupils of the Select school, M J Dow, principal, gave an exhibition which was so far superior to the usual events of this kind, that a repetition was called for and given last night in Hayford Hall. Notwithstanding the very severe weather there was quite a large attendance, and the exhibition was unanimously voted the best of the kind ever given here. The programme was full and varied comprising dialogues, tableaux, music, readings, &c. Perhaps the best rendered piece during the evening was the play of "Cinderella," and the best tableau the "Reception of Duke Alexis."

We miss the Katahdin. She is still frozen in solid at Bucksport narrows, and it is feared may be in a dangerous place near a ledge when the ice breaks up. Our artist Kilgore has been up and taken some views of her as she lays, which will be finished in a few days. Our harbor is clear and free from ice, and we are really your winter port. Several vessel loads of corn, some 30,000 bushels, for Bangor, are expected here soon to discharge and be sent up by rail.

Our new City Government will be organized next Monday.

A County Temperance Society was organized here last Wednesday, with A. J Billings of Freedom as President, and Geo Hemmenway as Secretary. Executive Committee — Capt. Robert Hichborn, Stockton; B. W Ellis, Northport; John Roberts, Brooks. Sub-committees of three in each town in the county and five in Belfast will be appointed. A lecture was given in the evening by Rev David Boyd of Rockland, G W C T of the State. The next meeting will be held on the first Wednesday of June.

The next lecture in our Lyceum Course will be by Wendell Phillips on Friday next. Subject not yet announced.

It is proposed to organize a County Farmers' Club or Association here on the 20th of April. A Club was organized at Brooks village a few days ago. The Belfast Club holds its meetings Friday evenings at the houses of the members. There are also clubs at South Brooks, Prospect and Stockton, and North Searsmont, all in working order.

The only party nomination made at our late city election was for Police Judge. Geo. E. Johnson, Republican, was elected over J. B Murch, Democrat, by 60 majority. The Mayor is Republican, Board of Aldermen, four Republicans to one Democrat, Council, five Republicans and five Democrats.

PRODUCE MARKET

The following report is obtained by particular observation on the market and the quotations are the prices paid for produce from the country teams this day, or about the average for the week past

HAY The quantity of loose hay on the market during the week has not been the average for the winter, on account of the severe cold and stormy weather yet the price has not advanced any as the storehouses are well filled with pressed hay. The best qualities of loose have sold from $28 to $30 and $32 per ton and other inferior grades from $20 to $22 per ton. Pressed hay is retailed from the storehouses from $30 to $32 and some extra lots at $34 per ton

STRAW Loose straw comes into market in fair supply and sells at $14 to $15, and some extra loads at $17 per ton

OATS are very scarce on the market and good clean lots sell quick at 65 to 68 cents per bushel

RYE Spring and winter sells at 90 cents to $1.00 per bushel

BARLEY being but little used for feed sells at 65 to 70 cents per bushel

BEANS The dealers in this article of produce seems to be pretty well supplied at present and prices are a little slack. Good store lots of yellow eyed beans are worth about $2 25, and small hand picked lots, from $2.30 to $2.40 per bushel. Extra pea-beans sell at $3 25 to $3.50 per bushel

BUTTER The market is well supplied with a common or fair quality, but what the dealers would call a right nice article of lump butter is decidedly scarce and would sell at 30 to 32 cents per pound. Aroostook solid we should still quote as taking the range from 20 to 25 and 28 cents per pound according to quality

EGGS The supply on the market this week has been decidedly checked on account of the very stormy and cold weather, and the price paid on the streets has been from 23 to 25 cents per dozen

POTATOES are brought in only in small lots and sell at 35 to 40 cents per bushel

FRESH MEATS Round hogs fresh killed and brought from the near by towns are worth 8 and Western from 7 to 7¼ cents per pound. The best quality of mutton is worth from 8 to 10 cents per pound. Beef is still plenty on the market and sell at prices corresponding with the quality all the way from 5 to 8 10 and 12 cents per pound

WOOL &c The best qualities of wool are worth from 80 to 39 cents per pound wool skins sell from $2.75 to $3 00 and some extra ones at $3 25 each. Veal skins 20 cents, and hides 7¼ to 8 cents per pound

WOOD & COAL The best quality of hard wood is sold at $5.50 to $6 00 per cord, and stove and furnace coal at $9 50 to $10.00 per ton

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—Yesterday was Passion Sunday

—Two pleasant and comfortable days—Saturday and Sunday.

—Stanford's auction sale of dry goods will be continued this forenoon and afternoon.

—We noticed a man turn a man turn a somersault over a jigger in Pickering square Saturday—perhaps in training for a circus.

—Mr Albert Noyes has something to say in another column, to admirers and keepers of poultry. Mr Noyes has a very large number of fowls of all the fancy breeds

—The mail and express matter for Houlton is now taken to that place by a special stage from Danforth on the E & N A Railway.

—The brig Nellie Clifford of this port, Capt Littlefield, has been chartered for Fernandina, Fla., to load lumber for Fall River at $11 per M

BENEFIT BALL A complimentary benefit ball will be given to Mr Wm Crombie at Acadian Hall this evening. The committee having the arrangements in charge will spare no pains to make it a success.

—Messrs. Swett & Co, of this city, have purchased, on private terms, the barque Ellen Morrison of Wm. H Cook & Co. The E M is 150 tons burthen and was formerly a New Bedford whaler

—The arrival of Mr and Mrs. Edwin Noyes at St. Augustine, Florida, is announced in recent papers of that place. Letters received in Waterville say that the health of Mrs. Noyes is improving

—A large horse kicked up considerable excitement in Pickering square Saturday by getting one hind leg over a thill of the vehicle to which he was harnessed. The efforts of nearly a dozen men were necessary to extricate him from his uncomfortable position

—Mr L A. Torrens of this city leaves for St John this morning to take charge of the grand Musical Convention which assembles there this week. Quite a large delegation of Bangor vocalists will accompany him, and others follow later in the week

—A few days since Messrs. F. S. Jennison & Co found an ordinary pocket knife in a chest of tea that they were retailing to their customers. An elephant was stamped on the blade, but there was nothing to show where or by whom it was manufactured.

—The term of the Supreme Judicial Court at Houlton closed a week ago last Saturday, and Judge Dickerson has been endeavoring to get home ever since. He arrived here on the E & N A. train last night, and will make a fresh start for Belfast this morning. This looks like an instance of "the law's delay"

—A coat, considerably dilapidated, with stains of blood upon it, found by some boys Friday night, on the ice in the stream, started a "fearful tragedy" story Saturday; but the police investigated the matter and found the garment belonged to a man who was inebriated, tumbled down and bruised his nose so that it bled, the previous evening

—Much anxiety is felt concerning the non-arrival at Bremen of the barque Samuel Larrabee, Capt. Thompson, (owned by Samuel Larrabee and others of this city) which sailed from Savannah, Jan. 9th, with 2470 bales of cotton. The S L. was built at Frankfort in 1868, is 1131 tons burthen and was considered a very strong, staunch vessel

—Four or five fellows with belligerent dispositions amused themselves by punching each others' heads, in Pickering square Saturday evening. Others joined in, and what was at first a gentle fight was rapidly assuming the aspect of a general row, when the police intefered and spoiled the fun.

—The successors to the firm of Blunt, Hinman & Co, dissolved, are Messrs. Eben Blunt, J. P. Webber and E W Blunt, who have formed a copartnership under the firm name of Blunt & Co., and will continue the business of manufacturing and dealing in lumber, with office at 66 Exchange street, and mill on tide water, below the the city

WENDELL PHILLIPS This distinguished orator will lecture in Norombega Hall on Thursday evening, 21st inst. This lecture is the closing entertainment of the G. A. R. course in this city, and we have no hesitation in predicting that it will bring out the largest audience of the season. The sale of tickets with secured seats, opens at Bugbee & Co's bookstore to-morrow morning.

THE KATAHDIN FREE. A dispatch from Bucksport announces that the steamer Katahdin has got out of her berth in the ice near Orphan Island, and passed Bucksport yesterday afternoon on her way back to Winterport. The steam tug C. B. Sanford had also got free, and came into her dock at the same time. These steamers have been imprisoned in the ice since Tuesday last.

—A lad named James C Driscoll, was arrested Saturday on the charge of stealing $38 from Mrs. Gleason. He admitted taking the money, but said he found it hidden in a bed and did not know to whom it belonged. He hid it in another place, he said, but the officers could find nothing of it, and it is supposed that some one saw him conceal it and "drew" it again

QUINTETTE CLUB CONCERT None of our readers should miss attending the concert by the Mendelssohn Quintette Club and Mrs J. W Weston of Boston, to be given in Norombega Hall to morrow evening. The ability and talent of the artists are too well-known here to need a word in their favor, and we write this only to remind our citizens that this is probably their last appearance in Bangor this season. Good seats may still be procured at Duren's bookstore, and we expect to see them all taken up by to-morrow evening

—An Augusta correspondent says. The reception at Mr. and Mrs George F Potter's, State street, on Wednesday evening, was one of the most brilliant and agreeable of its kind ever in this city. The tact and task of displayed in the entertainment of the guests, the rich and beautiful toilets of the ladies, and the general spirit of happiness that pervaded the guests will make it an occasion long to be remembered

CASTINE AND ELLSWORTH RAILROAD — Agreeably to notice a meeting of the corporators of the Castine and Ellsworth Railroad Company was held at Castine on Friday, with Hon. Wm H Sargent as Chairman and Geo F. Tilden Secretary. It was voted to accept the charter granted by the Legislature. Capt. Charles Deering of Portland, Munroe Young of Ellsworth, Luther G Philbrook, Alfred F Adams and Samuel T Noyes of Castine, were elected Directors for the ensuing year. At a meeting of the Directors, held subsequently, Capt. Charles Deering was elected President and Gen Charles W Tilden of Castine, Treasurer of the Company.

ALMOST A FIRE. Last Tuesday night a live coal dropping from a stove, in the "sitting room" of Jesse W. Rogers' house on Whiting's hill, Brewer, set the floor on fire and burned through to the cellar before it was discovered. Mrs Rogers awoke to attend to a sick child, at about 11 o'clock, and smell ing smoke hastened to the sitting room and ascertained its origin, as above stated. With the aid of her husband, the flames, which were spreading with great rapidity, were subdued, though with considerable difficulty — The discovery was most opportune, as in a short time the fire would have been beyond control, and the wind was blowing a gale that night

NICHOLS' GIFT ENTERPRISE The selectmen of Orono, upon receipt of a telegram from Mayor Wheelwright, forbade the drawing last night. The drawing is transferred to Stillwater —Commercial, 16th

We are assured by Mayor Wheelwright that there is no truth in the statement that he telegraphed to the selectmen of Orono, concerning the drawing of this lottery. The following letter from one of the officials referred to, also refutes the charge —

Mr Editor I see in Saturday's Commercial a statement that Mayor Wheelwright telegraphed to the Selectmen of Orono to stop the drawing of Nichols' lottery, in this town. Nothing of the kind was done. No message from Mr Wheelwright, or any one else, was received by them. They can do their duty in such matters without any dictation.

INTERNATIONAL MUSICAL CONVENTION The grand International Musical Convention at St John opens this afternoon. Mr. Torrens of this city, who is to conduct it, intended to have gone down Saturday, but found it impossible on account of the snow blockade on the railway, and will start this morning, hoping to get through to night or to morrow morning. Until he arrives the class will be under the direction of Mr. Peiler of St. John, an experienced director. Quite a number of Bangor vocalists will accompany Mr. Torrens, and others will go later in the week. The Mendelssohn Quintette Club, with Mrs Weston, who give a concert here to morrow evening, will go to St. John Wednesday, assisting in the concert that evening, and accompanying the chorus during the remainder of the session, which closes Friday night with a grand vocal and instrumental concert. During the Convention Rev S. P. Fay of this city will deliver a lecture on music, and Lieut. Gov. Wilmot, under whose patronage the Convention is given, an oration. The railways grant free return tickets, the hotels accommodate parties at reduced rates, and preparations have been made for the grandest affair of the kind that ever took place in the Province

THE TRAINS The last storm though very severe here, was it seem, still harder to the eastward of us. The E. & N. A train which left this city Thursday, arrived at McAdam Junction a few minutes past 7 o'clock that evening, having on board some 40 passengers for St John. Mr McLeod, Manager of the Provincial end of the road, sent an engine from St. John at 8 that evening, which was out all night and got into McAdam at half past 6 Friday morning, turning about, it took the train from Bangor and returned, having a hard battle with the snow-drifts. Friday's train which left this city on time, arrived at McAdam at 2.10 P M, when the train coming this way which left St. John that morning, started out. After getting stuck several times, Vanceboro' was reached, and the train left there four hours late. Four and a half miles this side, a snow drift barred further progress, and it being impossible to return, the train spent the night there, though every possible effort was made to relieve it. Saturday morning some thirty men, all that could be obtained, came to the rescue, and after, shovelling all day, the train returned to Vanceboro' — Supt. Angell engaged all the men obtainable in this city and along the line and sent up a relief train early Saturday, and after working all that day and night, and yesterday, the St John train arrived here at 7 10 last evening. The road is clear to McAdam, but from that place to St. John the track is so badly drifted that it is thought trains cannot get through until to morrow forenoon. A train will be run from this city to McAdam, however, as a large amount of mails, express matter baggage and freight is here awaiting transportation, as well as quite a number of passengers.

No train has run over the N B & C road since last Tuesday, and as there are some 80 miles of track so badly drifted as to require shovelling, it is likely that it will be some time before the regular running of trains can be resumed. Mails and express matter are now taken to Houlton by stage from Danforth on the E. & N. A. Railway

The B. & P Railroad has been cleared, and the train which left here Friday morning returned to Oldtown, together with that which left Bangor the same morning, arriving at 3.20 yesterday afternoon. One train came down with the E. & N. A. train last night, while the other immediately returned, so as to be ready to start from each end of the road this morning as usual.

The Friday night Pullman train from Boston came no further than Portland, and none left this city that night, but remained here until Saturday night, when it started on time. Saturday night's train from Boston arrived here about 8 o'clock yesterday morning

Friday's train from Belfast was snowed up near Brooks village, on its way to Burnham and remained on the "branch" until Saturday

The drifts on the roads to the east and north of us are reported to be enormous—in many cases seven to twelve feet deep, and it is most creditable to the railroad men to have forced their way through as soon as they did

SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY OF ANIMALS. An adjourned meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held on Saturday evening in the office of the Supt. of Schools, City Hall. The President being unable to attend, Capt. J D. Warren, was chosen President pro tem pore. Capt. Warren, from the committee to which the matter of changing the Constitution and By Laws was referred at the last meeting, reported the following. Article 4 of the Constitution to be amended so as to read —

Any person may become a member of this Association upon the annual payment of one dollar, and signing the Constitution and By Laws

Article 3 of the By Laws to be amended so as to read as follows —

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and Directors, sign all diplomas and other documents, certify bills, and conjointly with the Directors have the general oversight and direction of the interests of the Association. In case of the death, absence or disability of the President, the powers and duties of that officer, during such absence or disability, shall devolve upon the Vice Presidents in the order in which they are ordered

Article 8 of the By Laws to be amended so as to read as follows —

The President shall be authorized to offer and pay from the funds of the Association a sum not exceeding ten dollars to any person or persons who shall furnish evidence sufficient to convict any person or persons guilty of an infraction of the laws for the prevention of cruelty to animals

The report was accepted and the amendments recommended therein adopted and put in full force.

The annual report of the Treasurer E F Fox, Esq, was read and accepted. It is as follows

O H Ingalls, Esq, Secretary, made his annual report from which we gather the following —

This society being the only one of the kind in the State has been obliged to enter upon heretofore untried work, against strong opposition and the fixed opinions of many accustomed to witness the abuses of dumb animals as a matter of necessity rather than one to be restrained and corrected, yet there is much reason for congratulation that so much has been done under adverse circumstances, by the execution of the law on offenders and more by good councils. There is an improved public sentiment upon the subject. Many who at first opposed the society are now ready to aid it in words of encouragement and their means. Owners of teams in the city and adjoining towns, stable keepers and especially those who keep horses to let find that those who drive them are more careful as they have the fear of the law before them. The greatest difficulty has been the unwillingness of persons to be informers or to furnish testimony to secure the conviction of offenders. Another, is that while the law makes it the duty of all sheriffs, constables and police officers to prosecute offenders, as there is no provision for fees there seems to be no inducement for them to take the trouble or make enemies possibly of friends, to save animals from cruelty. It is therefore recommended that the Society offer a suitable reward to those who shall furnish evidence sufficient to obtain the conviction of persons violating the provisions of his law. Since the organization of the Society fifteen persons have been prosecuted for abuse of animals, and many others have corrected their abuses. Four persons have been prosecuted the past year and have paid their fines amounting to $37. The practice of shipping fowls to Boston from Bucksport and Orland, in crowded coops, without food or drink on the passage, has been broken up, also the shipping of doves from this this city to Boston in a similar manner. The Secretary recommends that means be adopted to increase the number of members of this society, and that life memberships be granted on the payment of $10, also that public meetings be held in the city and neighboring towns to call attention to the subject, and awaken an interest in the welfare of dumb animals

The report was accepted and the Society proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year, those below named being unanimously chosen:—

President, J D Warren
Vice Presidents, A L Simpson, Henry Gale and Samuel Jewett.
Treasurer, T. G Stickney
Secretary, O H Ingalls
Directors, George Stetson, L F Duren, Wm C Crosby, E M Stilwell and J S Wheelwright

The Society voted to authorize the Secretary to have printed and distributed one thousand handbills, containing Article 8 of the By-Laws, as above amended

The meeting was then adjourned to the first Tuesday in April, at 3 P M in City Hall

"A SENSATIONAL RUMOR." Under this head the Boston Traveller publishes a dispatch from its Washington correspondent intimating that "new difficulties have arisen in connection with the Geneva Conference, and that "great events are on the eve of transpiring." The writer says that "One of the officers of the British Navy, who is soon to assume command of a powerful fleet, is said to be travelling over the United States incognito, with a view of ascertaining the strength of the value of our armament" and also that "orders have been quietly issued by the government of Great Britain to set her ship yard in motion, and be prepared for the most unexpected emergency. This will do very well until the next "sensation" arrives from that prolific source, the Washington newspaper correspondence.

MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS, ST. For the last twelve months I have done so, at [illegible] In [illegible] consumption, and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, it has done wonders. In [illegible] persons suffering from the effects of Diphtheria and the following Typhoid Fever prevalent in this region, it is best remedial agent I have ever used. But for persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the brain and nervous system from long continued study or teaching or in those cases of exhaustion from which so many young men suffer I know of no better medicine for restoration to health than your Compound Syrup.

The Cause and Cure of Consumption

The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood and hence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease or if they take cold will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose the surest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. [illegible]

The stomach bowels and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid the organ is torpid and the appetite is poor. [illegible] Schenck's Seaweed Tonic [illegible] Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup [illegible]

[illegible]

I have seen many persons cured with only one sound lung live and enjoy life to a good old age. [illegible]

It is important that while using Schenck's medicines care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in-doors in cool and damp weather, avoid night air and take out door exercise only in a genial and warm sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold while using my medicines I do so for a special reason. [illegible]

The person should be kept on a wholesome nutritious diet and all the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption [illegible] many years, with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

About the first of October I expect to take possession of my new building at the north-east corner of Sixth and Arch street, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it.

Full directions accompany all my remedies so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.

Having returned from Boston, and taken charge of the Custom Department at S B FIFIELD'S well known Clothing House would return thanks to his old friends for past favors and flatters himself that after three years experience in a first class Boston Custom establishment, that he can get up as stylish a Garment as can be obtained in that city at a considerably lower figure, and thinks that if those who have been in the habit of patronizing Boston establishments for their custom work will give him a call that he can suit them equally well, as regards style and make up a Garment and considerably better in regard to price having already done so in several cases

THE NEW CHURCH ORGAN

BY WILL M. CARLETON

They've got a bran new organ, Sue,
For all their fuss and search;
They've done just as they said they'd do,
And fetched it into church.
They're bound the critter shall be seen,
And on the preacher's right
They've hoisted up their new machine
In everybody's sight.
They've got a chorister and choir,
Agin my voice and vote;
For it was never my desire
To praise the Lord by note!

I've been a sister good and true
For five-and-thirty year;
I've done what seemed my part to do,
An' prayed my duty clear;
I've sung the hymns both slow and quick,
Just as the preacher read,
And twice, when Deacon Tubbs was sick,
I took the fork an' led!
And now their bold, new-fangled ways
Is comin' all about;
And I, right in my latter days,
Am fairly crowded out!

To-day the preacher, good old dear,
With tears all in his eyes,
Read, "I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies."
I al'ays liked that blessed hymn—
I s'pose I al'ays will;
It somehow gratifies my whim,
In good old Ortonville;
But when that choir got up to sing,
I couldn't catch a word;
They sung the most dog-gonedest thing
A body ever heard!

Some worldly chaps was standin' near;
An' when I see them grin,
I bid farewell to every fear,
And boldly waded in.
I thought I'd chase their tune along,
An' tried with all my might;
But though my voice is good an' strong,
I couldn't steer it right;
When they was high, then I was low,
An' also contrawise;
And I too fast, or they too slow,
To "mansions in the skies."

An' after every verse, you know,
They play a little tune;
I didn't understand, an' so
I started in too soon.
I pitched it pretty middlin' high,
I fetched a lusty tone,
But oh, alas! I found that I
Was singin' there alone!
They laughed a little, I am told;
But I had done my best;
And not a wave of trouble rolled
Across my peaceful breast.

And Sister Brown—I could but look—
She sits right front of me;
She never was no singin'-book,
An' never went to be;
But then she al'ays tried to do
The best she could, she said;
She understood the time right through,
An' kept it with her head;
But when she tried this mornin', oh,
I had to laugh, or cough!
It kept her head a-bobbin' so,
It e'en a'most came off!

An' Deacon Tubbs—he all broke down,
As one might well suppose;
He took one look at Sister Brown,
An' meekly scratched his nose.
He looked his hymn-book through and through,
And laid it on the seat,
An' then a pensive sigh he drew,
An' looked completely beat.
And when they took another bout,
He didn't even rise;
But drawed his red bandanna out,
An' wiped his weeping eyes.

I've been a sister good an' true
For five-and-thirty year;
I've done what seemed my part to do,
An' prayed my duty clear;
But death will stop my voice, I know,
For he is on my track;
An' some day I to church will go,
An' never more come back,
An' when the folks get up to sing—
Whene'er that time shall be—
I do not want no patent thing
A squealin' over me!

Testimonial from Deacon Theodore B Perkins formerly of the well known house of Nason, Hamlin & Co Augusta, Me, after using [illegible] of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam

GLOUCESTER, Mass. Dec 26, 1871

F W KINSMAN, Esq —My Dear Sir Excessive business calls alone prevented my sooner acknowledging the receipt of your very valuable favor and I am now glad to say that your Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is the most efficacious preparation for coughs and colds that I have ever had in my family. At the time it was received I was suffering sadly with Asthma, attended with a dry, hard cough both of which left me immediately after taking the mixture. The latter has not returned. It has been several weeks

We, the undersigned, having enjoyed for many years an intimate personal acquaintance with Deacon Theodore Perkins, would certify that his case of Asthma was as bad as any that has ever come under our notice and that to our knowledge, on account of this illness he went to California, where he remained about one year undergoing treatment for the disease

Mr W F KINSMAN—Dear Sir For the last 5 years I have been troubled with a cough, have spent the winter in Florida, taken about everything in the shape of patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions, and I can say that your Adamson's Botanic Balsam is the best thing I have found for a cough. I have been using it some three months, and am about well.

Yours truly, S B YOUNG,

AUGUSTA, Jan 2d 1872

Mr KINSMAN I have been troubled with Asthma attended with a Cough ever since I was six years of age, have tried various remedies. Commenced using Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam some time in January, 1871, and it seemed to act like magic, curing me at once. I have had but little cough since and I think that it is the best remedy to be found for Asthma. I have since recommended it to quite a number and it has given good satisfaction.

PATENT LIGHTNING SAW
EXTRA SPRING STEEL
PATENTED NOV 27 1866, JULY 23 1867, JAN 4 1870, JULY 27 1869
E. DEAN MOODY BOYNTON
NEW YORK

NOT ONE FAILED IN 20,000

The New Year finds the LIGHTNING SAWS universally acknowledged to lead the American market. No manufacturer of saws has dared to question or publicly test [illegible] American Institute or elsewhere, the [illegible] superiority of the latest improved Saws. The $500 challenge for expenses of [illegible] test is engraved on each saw [illegible] letters and simple as old V. All Saws warranted to Coil and Touch uninjured.

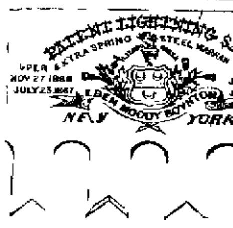
[illegible] increase of the business has compelled [illegible] Beekman st and arrangements for manufacture of five thousand LIGHTNING [illegible] per month and hope to be able to fill all [illegible]

[illegible] has been unequal to the demand for [illegible] LIGHTNING BUCK SAW but hereafter I [illegible] to keep a stock on hand. The sale of [illegible] thousand dozen of the above-mentioned [illegible] belief that they are the best blades in [illegible] market. All Lightning Saws are indelibly [illegible] my name. The Cross-Cuts with directions [illegible]

[illegible] Lightning Saw will coil and touch ends un[illegible] twenty thousand has proved imperfect [illegible] though is the inspection of these [illegible] for the benefit of such unskilled [illegible] set and use a thin Saw, a guage [illegible] (regular 15) will be inserted to order [illegible] of dust space, one year ago, no complaint of logging has been received. The Lightning Saws are equally adapted for large and small timber [illegible] hard wood, but soft timber requires saws to be set wider. Lightning Saws are all set and sharpened ready for use when sent out; are two [illegible] under on back



THE GREATEST INCLUDES THE LESS

Due to extra steel and durability as contrasted with [illegible] outlined on M tooth. After wearing teeth out they may be recut or sold to some admirer of the old V friction process, used by all other Saws

This Saw differs from all the well known clearing teeth Saws in use. The Lightning teeth are also beveled blades for cutting while clearing-teeth used by all other patent Saws are dust removers merely, requiring to be shortened and are left full thickness of saw plate as they do no cutting. The Lightning Saw is designed to cut timber by direct action both ways. If one point of M tooth was set one way and in the other the slant would hole and lift out the tooth. Most of the large Hardware Jobbing Houses in America now handle my goods. BEWARE of worthless infringements for which I am seeking legal redress under Patents, Trade Mark, and Copy right.

NEW YORK AMERICAN INSTITUTE FAIR BUILDING
Nov 4 1871

E M BOYNTON 78 Beekman st New York—SIR This certifies that I saw the Lightning Cross-Cut Saw worked by hand, by two men, Nov 2 at this Fair. Said men and saw cut off a sound six inch chestnut log in 3½ seconds and 18 cuts of same continuously in two minutes and 18 seconds, or at a rate of a cord of wood in less than nine minutes. I am satisfied that for all purposes of cross-cutting large and small timber, your cross-cuts and wood saws have no rival in speed, in ease, and in simplicity

I believe their universal use would save a vast amount of money and time, and lighten the toil of millions of men. J W BLAKE,
Superintendent and Engineer American Institute Fair

N B These extreme tests are quoted merely to prove what should be obvious—that direct cutting is better than the old V friction process used by all other saws

Honest hardware men will procure the genuine for their customers, even if they are overstocked with inferior goods, and where they do not keep them, Agents are wanted. A six-foot Cross-Cut and Buck Saw sent on receipt of $6. Express will cost from 40 cents to $1 to places this side of the Mississippi River by special contract

N B Millions of Axes are used for cutting wood, a Lightning Cross-Cut Saw, either for one man or for two, will cut five times as fast as an axe, why not try them? Also Lightning Ice Saws, 4 to 6 feet long, suitable for general use.

See that the name and warrant are on each saw

OF GOOD

Timber Land

For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River, in the town of Greig, Lewis County, New York.

Said timber consisting of White Hemlock, Spruce, Pine and Hardwood. The subscribers own two large tanneries, located on the aforesaid tract, which will consume the hemlock bark, thus enabling the land and timber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality. In all particulars. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access, being only from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R R and Black River Canal, which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level, well watered and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the tract, is a large stream and empties into Black River, where the aforesaid Canal leads into Black River. At this point or junction of the rivers, is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of both rivers flow, thus forming an unlimited water power, (we might say right in the Canal and at the Depot,) to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone, permitted

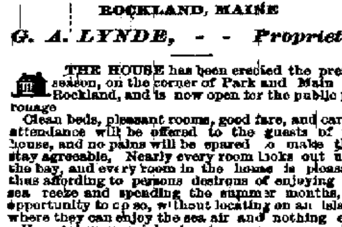
MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.



MISS SAWYER'S SALVE ROCKLAND, ME.

HERE you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties with no dangerous ingredient. A remedy at hand for the many pains and aches, wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir. Is more easily applied than many other remedies, never producing a bad effect but always relieving pain, however severe

It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick, for nearly twenty years, with great success.

The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are Chilblains Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Old Ulcers Salt Rheum, Sprains, Burns, Fever Sores, Felons, Pimples, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Barber's Itch Deafness Boils Ring worms Corns, Bites of Insects, Cancers, Toothache, Earache, Sore Nipples, Baldness, Swollen Breasts, Itch Scald Head, Teething, Chapped Hands, Scalds Cuts, Bruises, Croup, Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children

It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied. Rub it on well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured paralized limbs. For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy. Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications. For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient. For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately. Let those with Salt Rheum obtain this Salve and apply it freely, and they will find it invaluable. It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors. Cancers have been cured with it. The best Salve ever invented for Swollen Breast and Sore Nipples. No way injurious, but sure to afford relief. Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub it on the lids gently once or twice a day. Cures deafness by putting in the ears on a piece of cotton. For Felons this is superior to anything known. For Pimples this acts like a charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief. For Old Sores, apply once a day.

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of MISS SAWYER'S SALVE are its beneficial effects on the hair. Rubbed on the scalp, in five or six different parts, it promotes the growth of the hair, prevents it turning gray, and on bald spots it produces a new growth of hair. No lady should be without this invaluable article as an indispensable cosmetic for the toilet. It eradicates dandruff and disease from the head, and blotches and pimples from the face

From Mrs ELIZABETH COOMBS, Brunswick.

Brunswick April 4, 1867

MISS SAWYER I received your letter last evening, and was very glad you concluded to let me take your Salve. I think I can do well with it and it will be quite an accommodation to my husband, as he cannot get along without it. He has tried everything else and has never found anything that healed his leg as that Salve of yours and we have both found it to be all, and even more, than you recommend it to be. We have had it in the family five or six years, and have used it for everything, and can truly say we have never found its equal. I use it for a weak back, and it acts like a charm. Mr Coombs has had a Fever Sore on his leg for thirty years and would be a cripple to-day if he had not found a remedy in your Salve. It keeps it healed and takes out the inflammation, proud flesh and swelling and does for him all that he can ask. I can recommend it for a good many things that you have not, for I use it for everything. I consider it invaluable in a family. If you can put this testimony together and it can be of any service to you, you are welcome

Yours, &c, ELIZABETH COOMBS.

CONVENTION between the United States of America and the Republic of Nicaragua. Extradition. Signed June 25, 1870 ratified April 11, 1871, ratifications exchanged June 24, 1871, proclaimed September 19, 1871

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention for the extradition of criminals between the United States of America and the Republic of Nicaragua was concluded and signed at Managua by their respective Plenipotentiaries, on the twenty fifth day of June, 1870, which convention, being in the English and Spanish languages, is word for word as follows

Extradition Convention between the United States of America and the Republic of Nicaragua.

The United States of America and the Republic of Nicaragua, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to prevention of crimes within their respective territories and jurisdiction, that persons convicted of, or charged with the crimes hereinafter mentioned, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries the President of the United States, Charles N. Riotte, a citizen and Minister Resident of the United States in Nicaragua, the President of the Republic of Nicaragua Mister Tomas Ayon, Minister for Foreign Relations, who, after reciprocal communication of their full powers found in good and due form have agreed upon the following articles, viz

ARTICLE I

The government of the United States and the government of Nicaragua mutually agree to deliver up persons who, having been convicted of or charged with the crimes specified in the following article, committed within the jurisdiction of one of the contracting parties, shall seek an asylum or be found within the territories of the other. Provided, That this shall only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the laws of the place where the fugitive or person so charged shall be found would justify his or her apprehension and commitment for trial, if the crime had been there committed.

ARTICLE II

Persons shall be delivered up, who shall have been convicted of, or be charged, according to the provisions of this convention, with any of the following crimes

1 Murder, comprehending assassination, parricide, infanticide, and poisoning

2. The crimes of rape, arson, piracy, and mutiny on board a ship, whenever the crew, or part thereof, by fraud or violence against the commander, have taken possession of the vessel.

3. The crime of burglary, defined to be the action of breaking and entering by night into the house of another with the intent to commit felony; and the crime of robbery defined to be the action of feloniously and forcibly taking from the person of another, goods or money, by violence or putting him in fear

4. The crime of forgery, by which is understood the utterance of forged papers, the counterfeiting of public, sovereign, or government acts.

5. The fabrication or circulation of counterfeit money, either coin or paper, of public bonds, bank notes, and obligations, and in general of all titles of instruments of credit, the counterfeiting of seals, dies, stamps, and marks of State and public administrations and the utterance thereof

6. The embezzlement of public moneys, committed within the jurisdiction of either party, by public officers or depositors.

7. Embezzlement by any person or persons hired or salaried, to the detriment of their employers, when these crimes are subjected to infamous punishment.

ARTICLE III

The provisions of this treaty shall not apply to any crime or offence of a political character, and the person or persons delivered up for the crimes enumerated in the preceding article shall in no case be tried for any ordinary crime, committed previously to that for which his or their surrender is asked

ARTICLE IV

If the person, whose surrender may be claimed pursuant to the stipulations of the present treaty, shall have been arrested for the commission of offences in the country where he has sought an asylum or shall have been convicted thereof his extradition may be deferred until he shall have been acquitted or have served the term of imprisonment to which he may have been sentenced

ARTICLE V

Requisitions for the surrender of fugitives from justice shall be made by the respective diplomatic agents of the contracting parties, or, in the event of the absence of these from the country or its seat of government they may be made by superior consular officers. If the person whose extradition may be asked for shall have been convicted of a crime a copy of the sentence of the court in which he may have been convicted authenticated under its seal, and an attestation of the official character of the judge by the proper executive authority and of the latter by the minister or consul of the United States or of Nicaragua respectively, shall accompany the requisition. When, however, the fugitive shall have been merely charged with crime, a duly authenticated copy of the warrant for his arrest in the country where the crime may have been committed, and of the depositions upon which such warrant may have been issued, must accompany the requisition as aforesaid. The President of the United States, or the proper executive authority in Nicaragua, may then issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive, in order that he may be brought before the proper judicial authority for examining the question of extradition. If it should then be decided that according to law and evidence, the extradition is due pursuant to this treaty, the fugitive may be given up according to the forms prescribed in such cases.

ARTICLE VI

The expenses of the arrest, detention, and transportation of the persons claimed shall be paid by the government in whose name the requisition shall have been made

ARTICLE VII.

This convention shall continue in force during five (5) years from the day of exchange of ratifications, but if neither party shall have given to the other six (6) months previous notice of its intention to terminate the same, the convention shall remain in force five (5) years longer, and so on.

The present convention shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at the capital of Nicaragua, or any other place temporarily occupied by the Nicaraguan government, within twelve (12) months or sooner if possible

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present convention in duplicate and have thereunto affixed their seals

Done at the city of Managua, capital of the Republic of Nicaragua, the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, of the independence of the United States the ninety-fourth, and of the Independence of Nicaragua the fifty-ninth

[SEAL] CHARLES N RIOTTE.
[SEAL] TOMAS AYON

And whereas said convention as amended has been duly ratified on both parts and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Managua, on the twenty fourth day of June last, by Charles N Riotte, Minister Resident of the United States, and J D Rodriguez, Member of the Chamber of Deputies of Nicaragua, on the part of their respective governments.

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, ULYSSES S GRANT, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every clause and article thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed

Done at the city of Washington this nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, [SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-sixth

To the Honorable, the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the first Tuesday of April, next.

Respectfully represents Lizzie M Prescott of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, that she was married on the 4th day of September, A D 1869 at Bangor, aforesaid, to Rufus I Prescott then of said Bangor, that since their intermarriage she has in all respects done her duty as a wife, but that said Prescott in the first place fraudulently deceived her into the marriage, that he lived with her only fifteen months, that during that time he was guilty of extreme cruelty toward her, that he provided no means for her support, and that he then abandoned her entirely, and has never lived with her, provided for her support, or even seen her since, but has left this State and is now in parts unknown.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce may be granted from the bonds of matrimony between her and her said husband
